Public Health Service

National Institutes of Health; Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority

Part H, Chapter HN (National Institutes of Health) of the Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority for the Department of Health and Human Services (40 FR 22859, May 27, 1975, as amended most recently at 60 FR 30092, June 7, 1995) is amended to reflect a reorganization within the Office of Research Services (ORS). The reorganization consists of the following: Retitle the Division of Security Operations (HNAL4) to the Division of Public Safety (HNAL4) and revise its functional statement. This reorganization is consistent with Administration objectives related to the National Performance Review and the Continuous Improvement Program. This reorganization will enable ORS to better fulfill its mission by centralizing the focus of public safety functions within ORS.

Section HN–B, Organization and Functions, is amended as follows: (1) Under the heading Division of Security Operations (HNAL4), Office of Research Services (HNAL), delete the title and functional statement in their entirety and substitute the following:

Division of Public Safety (HNAL4). (1) Plans, directs, coordinates, and evaluates a comprehensive protection and security program that requires the development of protection and security criteria to eliminate or control protection and security vulnerabilities encountered in the construction, operations, and maintenance of NIH's health care facilities, research laboratories, administration and support facilities, and the physical plant; (2) is responsible for all security and protection programs, including education, training, technical assistance, physical security, hospital security, parking and traffic control, law enforcement, criminal investigation, fire protection, and emergency management; (3) implements Federal and Departmental regulations and establishes NIH policies and procedures in the area of security, emergency management, and protection; (4) as the focal point for the receipt and transmittal of classified documents, verifies clearance levels prior to the delivery of classified documents, provides security briefings and debriefings for persons holding security clearances, and destroys outdated classified documents; (5) maintains liaison with international, national, State and local law enforcement and emergency management agencies, with particular emphasis on the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Drug Enforcement Agency, Montgomery County Police and Fire, security directors of research facilities receiving NIH funds, and the Federal Emergency Management Administration (FEMA); (6) ensures that all appropriate action is taken to carry out 45 CFR Part 3, including providing assistance to the Department of Justice in prosecuting criminal offenses or pursuing other legal actions related to the law enforcement or investigative activities of the division; and (7) plans, conducts, and coordinates programs to protect life, property, and the environment in the event of fire, explosions, accidental release of hazardous materials, and natural disasters.

Dated: September 10, 1995.
